

Europa Economic and Political Reference Books 2011

NEW EDITION

The Territories of the Russian Federation 2011

February 2011; Hb 978-1-85743-598-6
234x156 (6x9); 348pp

'University libraries catering for courses in international relations, economics, comparative politics, etc. should definitely consider acquiring this book.' – Reference Reviews

New for 2011

The new 12th edition boasts detailed analysis of the ongoing unrest in various regions of the North Caucasus (Dagestan, Ingushetiya and Kabardino-Balkariya) and attempts by the state to combat the insurgency.

Readers will benefit from:

- a comprehensive overview of the Russian Federation in one volume
- full analysis and understanding of the country's regional dimension
- useful directories of important territorial contacts
- latest political, economic and statistical information which can be easily cross-referenced
- information from a wide variety of sources, many of which are otherwise unavailable in English.

Other titles in the Europa Territories of the World Series....

The Territories of Indonesia

September 2009; Hb 978-1-85743-215-2; 234x156 (6x9); 346pp

The Territories of the People's Republic of China

September 2006; Hb 978-1-85743-395-1; 234x156 (6x9); 272pp

NEW EDITION

The Territories and States of India 2011

November 2010; Hb 978-1-85743-578-8
246x174 (7x10); 394pp

'This is an excellent book for reference shelves.'

– Reference Reviews

An invaluable collection of information, commentary and case studies, enabling you to understand the regional dimension of the politics and economy of this vast and complex country. This title is unique in its scope and authority.

New for 2011

A fully revised Introductory Essay, The Centre and the States: Evolution of a Union, by Dr. David Taylor, offering analysis of the major political and socio-economic shifts over the last eight years.

Readers will enjoy access to:

- detailed chronologies of key events that have helped shape India and its individual territories
- a directory of essential contact names, postal addresses and telephone numbers
- an historic account and economic survey for each of the twenty-eight states and seven territories
- accurate and reliable data sourced directly from relevant institutions.

NEW TITLE

Handbook of India's International Relations

February 2011; Hb 978-1-85743-552-8
246x174 (7x10); 450pp

A definitive overview of India's international relations, this new title charts India's development as a major economic power. It reflects the growing interest in the impact of Asia on the international system in the future.

Offers an up-to-date, unbiased and comprehensive resource for academics, students of international relations, business people, media professionals and the general reader.

Features specially commissioned essays on latest developments, including:

- Geo-economics and Energy for India by Gulshan Sachdeva, Associate Professor, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, India
- India's Relations with Pakistan by David Scott, Lecturer on International Politics at Brunel University, London, UK
- India and International Terrorism by Arpint Anant, Associate Fellow at the Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses, New Delhi, India

NEW TITLE

A Political Chronology of the World

A major new publication, giving you an impartial record of the political, geographical and economic events that have helped to shape world history. You will find in-depth coverage of recent events, particularly in countries with a recent history of political upheaval, along with invaluable detail on the early history of each nation.

Organized with a chapter for each country in the world, contents include:

- the major events that have shaped each country and, where relevant, associated dependencies and territories
- coverage of major events and developments from the early history of each nation to recent events, charting each country's economic, political and social progress
- detailed information on the elections, wars, disputes, diplomatic activities and changes to national borders by invasion, annexation and treaty that have had a major influence on history.

March 2011: Hb 978-1-85743-577-1
279x211 (8x11): 832pp

NEW TITLE

A Dictionary of International Trade Organizations and Agreements

This new title is a major reference work on this important and complex area of international politics. Readers will find coverage of the numerous international and regional trade organizations and agreements, as well as the key terminology, concepts and ideas surrounding contemporary international trade cooperation.

Key Features:

- gives useful background on the historical development of trade organizations, as well as a global overview of the current situation
- discusses the major political and economic ideas and controversies
- analyzes the current dynamic between international and regional trade organizations
- provides comprehensive directories of leading figures involved in international trade.

May 2011: Hb 978-1-85743-329-6: 234x156 (6x9): 350pp

NEW TITLE

Economic Crisis in Europe: Causes, Consequences and Responses

The European economy is emerging from its deepest recession since the 1930s. This volume, which brings together economic analysis from the European Commission services, sheds light on how swift policy response avoided a financial meltdown and reveals what is planned to stabilise the economy.

Readers will find information on latest European fiscal policy, including:

- boosting potential output
- enhancing labour market flexibility
- preparing fiscal consolidation.
- facilitating intra-EU adjustment
- unwinding global imbalances

February 2011: Hb 978-92-79-15363-1: 246x174 (7x10): 200pp

