The Military Balance is The International Institute for Strategic Studies' annual assessment of the military capabilities and defence economics of over 170 countries worldwide. Offering region-by-region analysis and comprehensive data on weapons and defence economics, it is an essential resource for those involved in security policy making, analysis and research.

The Military Balance 2011* examines key global issues, including:

- the development of Iraq's security forces
- the debate over NATO's strategic concept and operations in Afghanistan
- developments in China's People's Liberation Army
- international comparison of defence expenditure and military manpower.

The new edition also features the 2011 Chart of Conflict.

STRATEGIC SURVEY 2011

The Annual Review of World Affairs

NEW EDITION

August 2011 • Pb 978-1-85743-618-1 • 246x189 (7.44"x10") • 400pp

Strategic Survey is the annual review of world affairs from The International Institute for Strategic Studies. It is an invaluable tool for interpreting world-wide strategic developments and has, since 1966, provided essential analysis of the year's key events in international relations for government policy makers, journalists, business leaders and academics.

Users of Strategic Survey 2011 will benefit from:

- an assessment of the effect of major events and trends on the strategic landscape over the past year
- regional chapters, analyzing developments in individual countries
- examination of particular strategic policy issues, such as terrorism and weapons of mass destruction, missile defence and the future of peacekeeping
- twenty-seven pages of maps detailing strategically important activity and political change globally, regionally and locally.

This major reference work also features specially commissioned analytical essays, written by leading authorities in Strategic Studies, including:

- US Nuclear Policy Transformed
- US Defence Policy: Preparing for Change
- Europe's Evolving Security Architecture.

THE ADELPHI SERIES

Rigorous Analysis of Key Security Issues

The Adelphi Series is The International Institute for Strategic Studies and Routledge's principal contribution to policy-relevant, original academic research. Eight books are published each year and are designed to provide rigorous analysis of strategic and defence topics that will prove useful to academics, researchers, politicians and diplomats, as well as foreign affairs analysts, defence commentators and journalists.

Recent additions to the Adelphi Series include:

Towards Nuclear Zero
