THE ADELPHI SERIES

Rigorous Analysis of Key Security Issues

The Adelphi series is the International Institute for Strategic Studies and Routledge's principal contribution to policy-relevant, original academic research. The books in the series are read by the informed general public and are used by politicians and professionals throughout the world to shape policy.

Building Peace After War

Mats Berdal, King's College London, UK

'I cannot think of anyone better suited to shine a light on the experience of peacebuilding efforts since the 1990s. He has raised fundamental questions which the international community should heed.'

Alvaro de Soto, former Under-Secretary General, United Nations

October 2009: 234 x 156: 186pp
Pb: 978-0-415-47436-8: $19.95

China's African Challenges

Sarah Raine

With China's relations with Africa changing drastically over the last decade, this is a timely analysis of how developments over trade, competition, global presence and concerns from Western actors are affecting their engagements and interactions, and what implications these have for not only the international community, but also a China on the verge of 'going global'.

May 2009: 234 x 156: 270pp
Pb: 978-0-415-55693-4: $19.95

Transforming Pakistan

Ways Out of Instability

Hilary Synnott, IISS, UK

'Hilary Synnott has produced a thorough and admirably clear description of the background and dilemmas which face the government of Pakistan and therefore all those other countries which have a deep interest in its future.'

Douglas Hurd, former British Foreign Secretary

August 2009: 234 x 156: 186pp
Pb: 978-0-415-56260-7: $19.95

Japan's Remilitarisation

Christopher W. Hughes

Is Japan on a path towards assuming a greater military role internationally, or has the recent military normalisation ground to a halt since the premiership of Junichiro Koizumi?

April 2009: 234 x 156: 188pp
Pb: 978-0-415-55692-7: $19.95
